The present approval is being sought only because of the apportioned ESOP cost charged to the Profit and Loss account.

2. Steps taken or proposed to be taken for improvement:

As stated in earlier in point III - 1.

3. Expected Increase in productivity and profits in measurable terms:

Presently the scale of business of SAMIL is limited to 86 locations. In view of the limited scale of operations the margin are under pressure. The Company's margin will improve upon increase in the scale of operations in next 3 to 5 years. SAMIL has initiated steps to upgrade technology, reduce employee cost, overhead and operational expenses. The Company is in the process of improving efficiencies at all level in a phased manner across its Automall in India. The Company is also diversifying its activities in providing bidding platform for trading properties and other products etc.

The Company has been reviewing its strategy for operation of its Automalls, taking into consideration the necessity of optimum utilisation of the Company's manpower and resources. This should lead to better the performance in coming years.
